_____ (business name) intends to report and remit all unclaimed property due to The State of Kansas for years covered in the *look-back period and the company will develop procedures to ensure future compliance with Kansas Unclaimed Property Laws. The business will examine their records, perform due diligence as required by law, prepare a report and deliver unclaimed property to Kansas by _____ (estimated date of delivery; date should not exceed one year from the date of this agreement).

The administrator shall have discretion to waive the payment of penalties & interest as described in KSA 58-3967 for businesses agreeing to participate in Kansas' Voluntary Compliance Program. A business that fails to report property as required by this agreement may be subject to the assessment of penalties & interest. Participation in this program does not protect your business from an audit.

Laws & guidelines pertaining to the report of unclaimed funds to the State of Kansas are accessible at <http://kansascash.com/holders>. Contact the UCP Holder Department with any questions at (785) 291-3173.

*Look-back period is 10 reporting years. If you have questions about this period please contact our office.
